THE VIEW OF AN AMERICAN, An "American" publishes a commendation in the Portsmouth Times as to the "Duties of the American party in the canvass before us," from which we make the following extract:

What are we now? Why, under the auspices and influence of a corrupt and mercenary press, who are making appeals to us to sustain the supremacy and permanency of the Black Republicanism and the idea of negro emancipation and equality! Shall we sacrifice every sentiment of patriotism and love of Union, which has been so long cherished by the people of Ohio, that the aims and objects of a faction like this should be carried out in the nomination of Salmon P. Chase for the Presidency?
